

Updates on restructuring process

- Non-payment of principal and interest

Singapore, 21 August 2019 – KrisEnergy Ltd. (“KrisEnergy” or “the Company”, together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”), an independent upstream oil and gas company, refers to the Company’s announcements dated 14 August 2019 (“Moratorium Announcement”) and 15 August 2019 in respect of the application filed on 14 August 2019 in the High Court of the Republic of Singapore (the “Singapore Court”) for a moratorium pursuant to section 211B of the Companies Act (Cap. 50) (the “Application”).

As set out in the Moratorium Announcement, given the financial condition of the Group, it is not feasible for the Company to make all payment(s) of its financial obligations as they fall due. As part of the restructuring process, the Company is working closely with its advisors to conserve all available cash to meet the KrisEnergy Group’s funding requirements during the restructuring period to protect the interest of all stakeholders while a holistic and equitable restructuring proposal is worked on.

In this connection, while the restructuring process is ongoing, the Company has decided to temporarily cease repayment on certain of its financial obligations. In particular, the Company has determined that the following payments will not be made:

- (i) principal and interest payable under the term facility agreements to each of The HongKong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited (“HSBC”) and Standard Chartered Bank, Singapore Branch (“SCB”) amounting to US$4,604,689.61 in aggregate which will be due on 21 August 2019; and
- (ii) interest payable under the S$200.0 million 4.0 per cent. senior unsecured notes due 2023 (“2023 Notes”) amounting to S$4,096,000 which will be due on 22 August 2019.

The Company has today received a letter from HSBC for acceleration of their term facility agreement. The Company will continue to engage with HSBC, SCB and the trustee for the 2023 Notes, as well as all other stakeholders.

The Company will continue to keep its stakeholders updated and will make the appropriate announcements as and when there are any material updates or developments. Shareholders, noteholders and potential investors of the Company are advised to read this announcement and any further announcements by the Company carefully and should exercise caution when dealing in the Company’s securities. Stakeholders and potential investors who are in doubt as to the action they should take should consult their stockbrokers, bank managers, solicitors, accountants or other professional advisors.
